Yorubas Beat Ibos 4-2

TO WIN ALEX ONI'S CUP AGAIN

By BASH. OLUKOTUN

Over 10,000 spectators thronged the Local King George V Stadium last Sunday with some disappointed when the not two strong Yorubas captained by Skipper Situ, outclassed and outplayed the Ibos 4-2 to win the Alex Oni's Cup. It will be recalled that Yorubas have been winning the Cup, but only once did the Ibos got it.

The first half ended 3-1 against the Ibos. Salvador put in the three goals for Yorubas with Ironkwe the only goal for Ibos. On the resumption, Ekunsunmi registered the fourth goal for Yorubas with a cannon shot after dribbling Ekwunob and Anekwe.

Before the close however, Ironkwe took advantages of Jaji Yoruba goalie who ran out of the goal rammed in their second goal.

Father D. J. Slattery controlled the game excellently.

Oil Expert From U. S. A. Will Advise Shell-D'arcy On Akukwa High Pressure Gas

Just arrived in Nigeria by specially-chartered 'plane are two oil experts from the U. S. A. who have come to advise Shell-D'Arcy on the control of their high pressure gas well at Akukwa, near Awka.

They are internationally-known MYRON M. KINLEY who has had world-wide experience in the control of abnormal gas pressures, and JAMES A. WIRTENSOHN.

As a precautionary measure it may be necessary to pipe he gas some distance away from the well and burn it throuh a flare to render it harmless. It will then be safe for work to continue on the well for the remaining sealin off operations.
