General MacArthur is dismissed

President Truman has relieved General MacArthur of all his Command in the Far East. He is succeeded by Lt General Ridgeway, Commander of the 8th Army.

President Truman said he had concluded that General MacArthur was unable to give his whole-hearted support to the policies of the United Nations. The change is to take effect at once.

The President said that military commanders are to be governed by the policies and orders of their government; Particularly at times of crisis.

Prevention Of Colour Discrimination

Last month a Bill to prevent discrimination in employment for race, creed, colour or nationality was introduced in the Legislature of the Province of Ontario by the premier the Honourable L M Frost. This Bill is framed in accordance with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. It emphasizes conciliation of unfair employment practices with recourse to the law courts should conciliation fail. This measure follows anti-discrimination legislation previously passed by the legislature of Ontario, namely, the Racial Discrimination Act and the Labour Relations Act.

New A P R O to Head Marketing Publicity Section

An addition to the staff of the Public Relations Department and to the ranks of journalists in Nigeria is Major M N Hennessy, Assistant Public Relations Officer (Marketing), who recently arrived in Nigeria to head the Publicity Section of the department.

New though this Section and its functions are in the Department the man to pilot it is by no means new to Nigeria, nor is Nigeria new to him. For Major Hennessy was with the Nigeria Regiment during the last war and went to Burma with the 82nd West African Divisions later becoming Deputy Director of Welfare Services for West Africa Command.

Major Hennessy realased from the Army in the 1949 and undertook extensive lecture-tours through Britain for the Central Office of Information. (Last year he toured the four West African Colonies as a travelling correspondent). One of the best-know contributors to Colonial Journals, he is also a well-known broadcaster. During last year he did twenty two broadcasts from the B B C to West and East Africa, including and interesting series on African pioneers, a series sketching the early history West Africa.

Working with Major Hennessy in the new Section is Mr Increase Coker, one of Nigeria's leading journalists.

Portuguese Experts Visit Nigeria

Two Portuguese Agricultural experts have arrived in Nigeria from Angola, Portuguese West Africa. They are M Antonio Teixeira Lopes, Director of Commerce and Industries and M Joaquin Xabregas, Agronomist.

They are interested in the Palm industry and have visited the Oil Palm Research Station in Benin before coming to Eastern Nigeria to see the great Palm Oil Belt. They have been impressed by the installations of Pioneer Oil Mills which they intend to recommend for adaptation in Angola.

The Palm Oil Industry in Angola is similar to Nigeria's in that producers are mainly peasant proprietors and a few plantations.
