Queen's Birthday Parade Lagos 1957

His Excellency the Governor-General, Sir James Robertson, G. C. V. O., K. C. M. G., K. B. E. will attend the ceremonial parade which will take place on the Lagos Race Course at 7.50 a. m. on Tuesday the 23rd of April, 1957, in celebration of the Official Birthday of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

This is to be a joint parade by the Nigerian Military Forces and the Nigeria Police, and the troops taking part include the Headpuaters, Southern Sub-District, the 2nd Battalion the Queen's Own Nigeria Regiment, the Nigeria Police, and the massed bands of the Queen's Own Nigeria Regiment and the Nigeria Police, together with the two Corps of Drums. The parade will be commanded by Brigadier M. R. Lonsdale, D. S. O., O. B. E.

All seats in His Excellency's Box, the Prince of Wales Stand and the Grand Stand will be reserved for members of the Council of Ministers, officials and leading members of the public, to whom invitations will be sent. Admission to these seats will be by ticket only.

All those without tickets will be accommondated round the ropes enclosing the parade ground.

Officials attending the ceremony who are entitled to wear uniforms should do so. Civilians are requested to wear the medals to which they are entitled. All spectators must be in their places by 7.30 a.m. The Nigerian Broadcasting Corporation is making arrangments to broadcast the ceremony.

The attention of all car owners is drawn to the following traffic arrangements:-

(1) Between 7 a.m. and 9 a.m. Racecourse Road between Moloney Street and the Junction of Onikan Road with Force Road will be closed to traffic.

(2) Between 7 a.m. and 9 a.m. the road leading towards the Grand Stand from the junction of Onikan Road with Force Road will be closed to traffic going in the direction of the Colonial Church.

(3) The only approach to the Stands will be from the direction of the Colonial Church.

Arrival: There will be three Car Parks:-

Park A Race Course Paddock, with overflow (if necessary) on to the road leading from the Grand Stand to Force Road. This park is for use by vehicles which have an Orange coloured label affixed to the windscreen;

Park B on the Race Course, opposite the Colonial Church with overflow (if necessary) in Campbell Street. This park is for use by vehicles which have a Green car label affixed to the windscreen;

Park C on the Children's Playground opposite King's College. This park is for use by vehicles which have no car label.

Departure: Vehicles from Park A will leave via Force or Paddock Roads: Vehicles from Park B will leave via Cable Street, Broad Street or King's College Road. Vehicles from Park C will leave via Catholic Mission Street. General Advice. To assist the Police and to avoid unnecessary delay, holders of orange and green car labels are requested to affix the label on the left (near) side of the windscreen of their vehicles.

Invitations to the press and to photographers are being issued by the Chief Administrative Officer, Lagos.

In the event of bad weather necessitating the cancellation of the Parade, the Nigerian Broadcasting Corporation will make regular announcements of the cancellation on their programmes starting at 6.45 a.m.
