Family links with

THE UNITED AFRICA COMPANY LIMITED

Recording some of the many families who have found interesting, varied and worthwhile careers with the U.A.C.

Many years ago Chief Okorodudu, son of the Olu of Warri, took his family on a trading expedition to Burutu. There he founded the village that still bears the family name, the village of Okorodudu. In 1952, in honour of the Chief, a vessel of the Niger River (Transport) Fleet was named "Okorodudu", and his portrait can be seen on the ship's bridge. The ceremony was performed by the present head of the family, Chief Eruwa Okorodudu.

Members of this family have served with The United Africa Company and its predecessors continuously since 1900. Their total length of service exceeds 160 years. The Company is proud of this unbroken link with so distinguished a family.
