FACETS OF ENTERPRISE No. 5

The cattle-raising country of Northern Nigeria contributes to the world's hide and skin trade a vast amount of one million hides and skins annually. The United Africa Company is the largest exporter of these, and has collaborated with the Government Veterinary Department in raising their quality to its present high standard. During many years' specialization in this trade, the Company has acquired the most modern and extensive veterinary coloring stations, to check hides for diseases and remove troublesome skin parasites, and with large facilities of hides and skins. Here, after meticulous inspection, each is individually selected, prepared and packed to the particular requirements of the various industries for which it is destined.
