Press Release By Professor Eni Njoku,

Chairman Of The Electricity Corporation Of Nigeria

E. C. N. — LONDON OFFICE

My attention has been drawn to an editorial in a Lagos newspaper commenting on the appointment of a Nigerian to the London Office of the Electricity Corporation.

The Corporation's London Office post is an executive post and not a diplomatic one. The office is in Nigeria House and such [illegible] aspects of the work as may exist are covered by the Federal Commissioner in the United Kingdom.

As an executive office, it requires that an officer posted to take charge of [illegible] must know something of the work being done in that office and the principle of carrying it out. In accordance with the Corporation's policy of Nigerianisation, continuous attempts have been made to train a Nigerian to take charge of the office by posting Nigerian officers there as understudies. One Nigerian officer has already done a tour of duty there but requested to be posted back to Nigeria. The Corporation has, therefore, been searching for a Nigerian officer who would find both the work of the office and life in London congenial so as to post such an officer there initially as an understudy.

It has never been the intention of the Corporation to post as the officer in charge of this office a Nigerian officer who has no experience of the work to be done there. There has, therefore been no reversal of policy either by the Board or the Management of the Corporation as alleged in the newspaper editorial.

Comparison with other Corporations is not helpful because the nature and volume of work done by different Corporations at their London Offices vary greatly. The Electricity Corporation's London Office is responsible among other things for arranging training programmes for Nigerian students returning to the service of the Corporation, and for dealing with indents for plant and equipment and stuff. Last Year the total amount disbursed by this office was £1 37[illegible],754.

The Corporation has every hope that it will find a suitable Nigerian who can be trained to take over this important office.

Letter To The Editor

The following letters has been received from Mr Phillip Obwofasa former Production Assistant, Warri Produce Marketing Union.

CHALLENGE ON N.C.N.C. SO-CALLED FOLLOWERS

Mr. Philip Obwofasa former Production Assistant, Warri Produce Marketing Union has accused the N.C.N.C. "So-Called followers" for political devotion and called them "Discriminators of Tribalism". He declared: I have no Personal animosity nor accusation against the Leaders but strongly blamed the "So-called Followers" for Ignorancy and People miss-conceived of Political under-Standings".

He went on and ceded: "Election is a tournament arrange for defeatism and if any party is defeated no enmity, he added."

NO PERMANCY IN DEMOCRACY

He further continues, maintained and stressed that in democratic Government no Office is Permanent so that if my party is won as instance, I would not with [illegible] of [illegible] with my party opponents [illegible] rather to have them as Political relatives.

He [illegible] said, cautioned and warned the [illegible] with neutral policies of Politics to change new leaves and to live up to the expectation of the required policies the country has for us.

HE SUGGESTS THE SO CALLED MEMBERS TO EMULATE OUR LEADERS

Concluding, Mr Phillip furthermore [illegible] the Neutralists and implore them to emulate their party Leaders, [illegible] Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe who had few months ago had [illegible] invitation to Chief Obafemi Awolowo to his recent [illegible] Party. He added and said that if he, Dr. Azikiwe though Politics a battle of enemy he would not have extended invitation to his Opponent's Political Leaders, concluded he.
