Courses for training teachers for secondary modern schools will begin in January 1956 at the Government Teacher Training College at Ibadan, Abraka, (men), and Ilesha (women). These courses will be of two years' duration.

The salary scale attracted by a successful completion of the course will be determined after consultation with the Terms of Service Committee, but in any case will not be less than that paid to holders of the Teachers' Grade Two Certificate.

Applications will be considered only from the following categories:

(i) holders of the Cambridge Oversea School Certifi-
(ii) cate, holders of the General Certificate of Education at Ordinary Level,
(iii) holders of the Royal Society of Arts Senior School Commercial Certificate in English and not less than four other subjects as prescribed in the Regulations of the Royal Society of Arts.

Applicants must be sponsored by a local authority, or a voluntary agency (including the proprietor of a private institution).

Any person who gains admission to one of these courses, and who is already a certificated teacher, will receive his present salary less £20 per annum deducted at source in part payment of subsistence. Employers will be eligible for grant in respect of these payments.

Other persons who gain admission will receive an allowance the rate of which is at present under review, but which in any case will not be less than £36 per annum.

Applications should be made direct to the Principals of the Government Training Colleges, through the sponsoring agency.

Applicants who wish to attend similar courses which will commence at the same time in various Valuntary Agency Colleges should apply to the appropriate principal in the usual manner.

E.C.N. v S.C.O.A. To-night at 5 p.m. all roads will lead to the King George V Stadium where E.C.N and S.C.O.A. will engage themselves in a grim battle. It will be remembered that S.C.O.A. played in the Finals for Lagos Zone last year, and was beaten by Kano.

Barely seven days ago, the E.C.N held the Railway Boys to a 2-3 game in the League Competition. It is with this spirit that the Electricity Boys will hold their opponents at play when they meet to-night. Fans have expressed confidence in the S.C.O.A. particularly when they are meeting a team like E.C.N. But things dont always go as we expect it.

As for Tarberer, E.C.N. left full back and the only European in the team, it will not be easy for Cyril and Dike in the S.C.O.A. forwards to-day.

UAC beat MARINE. Last Saturday at the King George V Stadium marine disappointed thier supporters and went tumbling before UAC 2-4. The defeat of marine actually lies in their forward line. Anieke, Sambo and Salvador all combined effectively to win the match for the UAC.

Next Saturday, same time, same stadium, the Railboys will try it out with the UAC for the second semifinal of the Competition.
