

Nigerians In eastern Germany Give Headache To Britshers At Home

British Colonial authorities are "urgently studying" what steps they take to prevent African students from going to the Soviet zone of Eastern Germany, as study centres at home.

This was revealed in the House of Lords this morning in Column 3.

A Review Of The Constitution— The Maepherson Constitution - A Farce

(BY THOMPSON TAJU)

Was besides leaders in Nigeria today who cannot own up and Commissioners will be summoned that was their recommendation is the same that Governor's say courageously? This is Lieut-Governors. Again in the I say Braro, let us give the his official capacity as the abed constitution! I have listened old form of our Constitution, constituting a trial. According representative of the King to many people discussing the Governor appoints members to Mr. De Winston the legalistic head of the Minister with Office who explained that this vice power all the implications to the members of the Oll. What a democratic Press at a. Press Conference-Nigeria is lucky to was held at the Public Relations Office. Whether we like it or not, the contents of the new constitution had been disclosed to the public. And the recommended and made into a Statutory instrument.

But another argument that the members of the house of had away arose was whether representatives, yes-constituting the constitution should be rejected. In the old constitution, it would say quite firmly now the Oba or the Native Council expect any good result from meeting with the members of anything started on a wrong Native Authorities, who have been discovered at last that the President if they said that the constitution is bad, bring him to the audience, but let us reflect it.

It had always been argued in a example shall be appointed some quarters that the constitution by the Lieutenant-Governor. The President of Northern and Western House of Assembly themselves, yes this was so, but was not consolidated or shaped to its present form by our people. I am not unaware that it had got to be made into legal instrument by the legal Dept either here or the Colonial Office. We have to do to instrumental something and it is quite another thing to twist it.

I know some of the members of the drafting Committee and have every reason to respect their intelligence and I have met some of them in their private capacities and at work. I cannot for a moment believe that these men would be given so much power to the Governor and his lieutenants.

Some fifteen years ago, our Chief Commissioners were called Lieut-Governors. What do we have today, I change from the President must be a yes man or an Uncle Tom. In part 2 Paragraph 25 under the Western Region the Lieutenant-Governors may recognise persons as chiefs, designate persons as heads chief and withdraw such recognition or revoke any such designation.

The powers conferred on the Lieutenant-Governors shall be exercised by him in his discretion. These are few obvious points which I have outlined in the present constitution. If the members of the
