The assurance of quality and experience

Facts speak for themselves. This venerable veteran, a truck type Lo 2000, vintage 1934, has covered 1,367,000 miles. No doubt it would have gone on, if Daimler-Benz AG had not bought it back at the ripe old age of twenty-five. Of course not every Mercedes-Benz can have such a long working life. However, all Mercedes-Benz vehicles are built to last, just as much now as they were then, to give many years and many miles of trouble-free, economical service.

The Nigerian Officers are led by Assistant Superintendent G. G. Adu of Jos, and have just completed a 10-weeks' course at the Metropolitan Police Detective Training School in London, and Leave for home today.

They are: Inspector L. Mbanefo of Ibadan, Inspector R. E. Okeke of Oki-gwi, Sup-inspector N. Nie of Ikaja, and sub-Inspector O. Udensi of Apa.

The course has included talks by a designer from one of the major safe ma-anufacturing concerns and by a Scotland Yard senior detective on the methods used by "spies" tracked by Dr. L. S. Staddon of the Metropolitan Police Laboratory on detecting arson and insect damage and by Assistant Commissioner R. L. Jackson of Scotland Yard, on the work of Interpol.

London Exhibition To Raise Funds For Nigeria's Flying Doctor

LONDON— Three British funds aiding Africa, the Freedom-from-Hunger Campaign, the Flying Doctor Service and the Kenya Shoals Appeals, will benefit equally from a Christmas exhibition just opened in London to stimulate voluntary contributions.

The exhibition is housed in a famous tourist landmark the Old Curiosity Shop, setting for Dickens' novel of that name—and uses more than 50 posters, photographs and press cuttings to illustrate the human needs of Nigeria, Kenya and other developing countries of Africa and the world.

The Agent-General for Northern Nigeria, in London, Alhaji Sa' Adu Alana, attended the opening of the exhibition by Sir Cyril Black, M.P. for Wimbledon and Chairman of the Flying Doctor Service of Africa.

Sir Cyril revealed that he would be flying to Kano on 28th December to spend three days with Dr. Neil Duncan and his team of youth club volunteers to see for himself the progress being made in setting up the Flying Doctor Service in Northern Nigeria.

The Flying Doctor Service section of the exhibition appears under the banner "Needs Your Help To Bring Healing Wings To Africa", and includes a map showing the proposed Flying Doctor facilities for Nigeria.
