Felloews Leaving West Africa

Mr. E. A. Fellowes, who has been General Manager of the Shell Company of West Africa Limited since 1956, will be leaving Nigeria shortly to take up a senior appointment in Indonesia. He will be succeeded in mid-March by Mr. W. L. Stewart.

Mr. Fellowes, who has been in Nigeria since 1953 has been closely associated with many aspects of community life in Lagos. In particular, since August 1955 he has been Chairman of the Ikoyi Club and since October 1956 a member of the Council of the Chamber of Commerce. He is well known as an outstanding all-round sportsman and for the last four years has refereed the All Nigeria Tennis Championships. He has been particularly eminent as a cricketer and in 1957 captained Nigeria's winning team when they visited Ghana.

AWARD THREE-YEAR SCHOLARSHIP TO STUDENT AT UNIVERSITY COLLEGE IBADAN

The United Africa Company of Nigeria Limited has awarded a scholarship tenable for three years to Mr. H. Anyanwu a medical student at University College, Ibadan. This is the first scholarship to be awarded at U.C.I. Under scheme announced last year by the Company.

Mr. Anyanwu is an Ibo from Owerri Province and was born in 1932. After attending St. Augustine's Grammar School Nkwerri he went on to the Nigerian College of Art Science and Technology at Ibadan where he gained his G.C.E. Advanced Level mainly in Science subjects under a scholarship awarded by Shell-B.P. Petroleum Development Company of Nigeria Ltd.

Mr. Anyanwu has two brothers one also in University College Ibadan in the Arts Faculty and the other in a Teacher Training College. His father who was serving on the Nigerian Railways died when Mr. Anyanwu was an infant.
