'Western Nigeria Magazine'

A weekly radio programme on the Nigerian Broadcasting Service featuring the activities of the Western Regional Government will begin on Monday (April 11) at 8.30 p.m.

The programme will be produced and presented by the Western Information Service and will be called "WESTERN NIGERIA MAGAZINE".

Ministers will from time to time come on the air to talk about their jobs. The activities of Government Departments will be featured in drama, songs and talks. Some topical news items will be given in the "Do You Know ?" series. A special programme for boys and girls called "Focus on Youth" and aimed at educating them on the important subject of the way the Western Region is governed and also to expand their horizon about affairs by means of Brains Trust and competition between schools.

Questions will be welcomed from members of the public and answers will be given during "Your Questions Answered" programme. "I Know These Men" will be devoted to intimate discussions of the lives of men who are running the Government of the Western Region.

On the first day of the new programme, the Minister of Home Affairs, Western Region (Hon. Anthony Enahoro), in whose portfolio Information Services lie, will explain the usefulness of the programme as a means of information. Goodwill messages by His Excellency the Governor, Sir John Rankine, the Premier, Chief the Hon. Obafemi Awolowo and some distinguished chiefs in the Region will also be heard.

PIONEER OIL MILLS

The Western Regional Production Development Board is willing to hire out to private individuals or communities a limited number of Pioneer Oil Mills in the Western area of the Region. These mills fall into two categories:

(a) Those erected and ready to go into production.

(b) Those delivered to site and/or partially erected and which will be erected by W.R.P.D.B.

There is one mill of the first category in each of the following places: Mosan, Asola (Abeokuta Province), Odo-Oba, Araromi (Ibadan Province), Ago Iwoye (Ijebu Province) and Irele (Ondo Province); and one mill of the second category in each of the following places: Oke Ase (Ijebu Province) Aradagun and Suko (Badagry Division).

2. The annual rent chargeable per mill would be £300 per annum and the Board would provide maintenance and other services for a nominal charge.

3. Moreover, during the period ending 31st March, 1956, the Board would be prepared to help prospective tenants thus:—

(a) To grant loans to cover cost of transport and working capital on production of two guarantors,
(b) To charge only half-rental,
(c) To provide maintenance and other services at a reduced charge or free.

4. The tenants will be given the opportunity of buying the mills at advantageous terms if they so desire.

5. For further particulars, please apply to the Secretary, Western Regional Production Development Board, Ibadan. Applications received after 30th April will not be considered.
