Correspondence.

Abeokuta, 17/1/23.

The Editor of "Eko Akete"
Lagos.

Dear Sir,

I have read and re-read Rev. M. S. Cole's Xmas message to us his country-men, in the Xmas number of the African Messenger. The article is indeed a great food for thought.

The time has come that our patriotism should be shown in practice and not in theory only. We want liberal education; we want encouragement and unaminity. Amongst the Europeans, prizes and even titles are given for invention or any new production for the education and the welfare of their people and race, but ours is just to criticise and discourage. It is high time we leave off all foolishness and act wisely.

I admire your zeal and courage and your disinterestedness in the race. That you have been labouring single-handed and under great odds cannot but win for you a great respect. But, thank God, that some of us are beginning to realize the duty becoming every one of us, in the interest of our race, by giving a practical support for the furtherance of your paper. May such supporters increase by leaps and bounds.

I wish to suggest the establishment of "Native Production Appreciation Fund" i.e. that any Native Productions which tend to the progress of the Race should, if approved by the Committee controling the Fund, be awarded prizes.

Some years ago (1910 perhaps) Mr. E. D. Morel was the recipient of an appreciation (in monies contributed even by us) a/c of his denunciation of the Congo Atrocities. What have we done to our Editors for fighting our causes?

What have we done to encourage our own Authors, Poets and Skilful Artisans? On the contrary we decry them; we throw mud at them.

Please bestir the public to think seriously over the above suggestion and let us see that something however little is done this year.

Yours truly,
A. K. A.

Beloved Physicians, No. 17.

Congratulations on the success which crowned your efforts to pull together, in recently opening, on Tuesday last, a Union Hospital at 24, Igboṣere Street, this city for the relief of suffering humanity.

Would you mind going a step further, in the near future, to found a monthly paper, say, for example, THE NIGERIAN MEDICAL JOURNAL, as a sister-organ to THE NIGERIAN LAW JOURNAL, in which our reading public will still have the benefit of your Research, in Pathology and Therapeutics?

By this latest endeavour of yours, you have answered the well-known Shakespearian Question "Canst thou not minister to a mind diseased?" to the letter.

Good Luck, old Chaps!

THANKS FOR SYMPATHY.

MR. C. P. WILLIAMS and familiy hereby return their sincere thanks to all those who by their personl calls, Letters, Telegrams, and otherwise have expressed sympathy with them on the "Home-call of their beloved mother, ZENOBIA C. WILLIAMS, on Saturday the 13th instant.
